Pastoral Devotion for February – Bring Your Children

Read Matthew 19:13-15

Bring your children. Bring them to church. Saturate their lives with the Word of God.
Even if they lay on the floor.
Even if they need a sippy cup and a pack of goldfish crackers to keep them occupied.
Even if you must stand in the back swaying back and forth holding them.
Even when it's hard.
Even when your pew looks like a small hurricane just came through.
Bring them to church. Even when you feel the glares and stares of others, don't let that stop you.
Bring them to church and give them room in your pew.
Let them see you worship. Let them see you pray. Let them hear you sing.
Let them see you coming to the Savior with hands outstretched to receive his body and blood.
Because if they don't see and learn these things from you, who will teach them?
The devil will teach them it's not a priority.
The devil will teach them it's okay to lay out.
The devil will teach them not to pick up their Bibles.
The devil will convince them to just skip worship all together.
Satan will have them so far off course and confused and misinformed that they will believe just being "good" is enough.
The world won't teach them about Jesus.
The world won't teach them about forgiveness.
The world won't teach them about grace.
The world won't teach them about heaven.
That's your job.
It begins by bringing them to church.
So, bring your children. A church without the sounds of children is all too quiet.
A church without the presence of children is less joyful than it needs to be.
So, bring your children. Sit with them. Teach them. Let them sit with you.
Let them learn from you.
Bring your children unto Christ, do not hinder them.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, bless the little children of our congregation. Bless us with their presence as we worship you and praise your name. Amen.

From Your Pastor's Heart

Jesus said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; ³⁸ therefore, pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest." Matthew 9:37-38

Recently, in a conversation I had with various clergy, the question was raised, "Why is it that so many Christians today don't put the same effort in their spiritual life and service to God as they do in their secular life and service to employers?" I've given this conversation much thought, and I believe I could rephrase this question to ask, "Why are so many Christians today reluctant to actively serve God through serving in their church?" I know plenty of people that when it comes to their secular life, in and out of work, the sky is the limit. They are willing to work overtime on days and weekends or keep strange hours if it means making it to a special event. They won't think twice about skipping church on Sunday. And when it comes to serving the Lord in special ways or at special times, the conversation becomes filled with "I can't," "I'm not good enough," "I don't have the time," or the much overused "You don't want me to do that." Rest assured, when one is invited to serve in a particular way, that person IS wanted by the one who asked. And the one who asks IS none other than Christ the Lord.

This reminds me of when I was a younger man, my dad was someone who seldom attended worship. Yet, one day, he went with my mom and found a few of his friends were regular attendees of the very same congregation. Eventually, Dad became a once in a while pew sitter, and after some time he was just as regular in his church attendance as his friends. Once that happened, his pastor recognized that he had gifts to share. The pastor asked my dad if he would serve as an usher. The initial answer was "No." But after being asked a few more times Dad relented and became an usher.

Then he was asked to serve on the Hospitality Committee. Again, he initially said "No." But after some encouragement, he agreed. Then came the biggie. The pastor asked Dad to serve the congregation as an Elder. What followed was the usual chorus of "I can't" and "I'm not good enough" and the inevitable "You don't want me to do that." The truth is, the pastor DID want my dad to do that, because the pastor recognized that Dad had the giftedness for the position, Dad just didn't want to believe it. And like many people, he didn't want the inconvenience of serving.

Long story short, Dad finally responded to God's call to serve and he became an Elder. He and my mom were also the chief members of the Hospitality Committee. Dad never missed a Sunday, and he found great joy in serving God through serving his congregation. That's how it works. Unexpected joy through serving God never comes if "I can't" turns into "I won't."

The devil would love nothing more than to convince you that you are not able, you are not worthy, or you are not wanted. "I can't," "I'm not good enough," "I don't have the time," and "You don't want me" are all the devil's words, not words of faith. They are the tricks he uses to convince you that you should not serve the God who saves you from the consequences of sin. Instead, the devil will try to convince you that a secular life filled with work and play is more desirable. And if you attend worship, you are better off just sitting in the pew noticing the actions of others. The devil wants you to respond to God's call saying, "I won't."

In our text, Jesus exhorts his disciples to earnestly pray to the Lord of the harvest that he would send more laborers into the fields. This is the prayer of every church leader I know. To tell the truth, there is plenty of room for more people to engage in the ministry of any congregation. By responding to God's call to serve, the faithful will always find unexpected joy through the giving of their time and giftedness. Here at St. Jacob's, we have plenty of opportunities. How will you answer when asked?

Grace to you and peace,

Up and Going

Happy New Year. The Up and Going met on January 8th at 11:00 AM in the Fellowship Hall to enjoy our annual Soup Pot Lunch and Bingo, with 14 members in attendance. Chief Cook Ann Lindler had the pot boiling and as members arrived and brought soup items, they were added to the soup pot. Other members brought items to enjoy with our soup or delicious desserts. The vegetable soup was delicious, as well as all of the other items and goodies.

Devotions were from "Mornings with Jesus: Emphasis on the Importance of Faith," given by Helen L Lindler, Team Leader. We all prayed together The Lord's Prayer.

Business session was conducted. Treasurer's Report was given by Treasurer Gary Marco.

Sickness was discussed and prayer concerns were brought before the group. Old and new business was discussed. 2026 birthday cards were signed. Gerald Lindler offered our Meal Blessing. We then enjoyed bowls of delicious vegetable soup and cooked okra, cornbread, a variety of crackers, and homemade pimento cheese. For dessert there was chocolate cream, apple and coconut pies and brownies. So, so, delicious.

After lunch, Joan and Gary Marco lead the group in BINGO; one of our favorite things to do. Everyone brought great prizes, an amazing variety of gifts. So hard to choose from. Bingo is always fun to play. The laughter and conversation are priceless.

Sincere thanks to everyone for your contributions. Special thanks to Ann Slice for providing the beautiful snowmen display and table pretties. Thanks to Ann Lindler for cooking soup and Joan and Gary for calling Bingo.

The February meeting is scheduled for February 12th at 11:00 AM in the Fellowship Hall. Please bring food to share. We will make bows for the Hospice Easter Bags. Plan to make 150. Bring ribbon if you want to. Time to plan for Easter Bag contents. Hope to see you then.

Up and Going

Music Notes

February is a time of change liturgically. We begin the month in the season of Epiphany when Christ is revealed to us as the light of the world. The Magi saw this light and were drawn to the child, Jesus. We see the Morning Star, fair and bright, who teaches us how to shine the light of God's love in the world. But by the middle of February, we will change to the season of Lent. We will put away the alleluias from our worship and in our music, we will reflect on our need for a savior and precious gift we have been given.

*My song is love unknown,
My savior's love to me,
Love to the loveless shown
That they might lovely be.
Oh, who am I that for my sake
My Lord should take frail flesh and die.*

February will also be a time of change for our congregation as the physical work on our parking lot begins. Because of lack of access to the building during the weekdays for safety reasons, we will have our normal midweek Lenten worship on Sunday evenings. Sundays will be a busy day. After Ash Wednesday, choir practice will change to Sunday evenings immediately following the Lenten worship service. We invite you to come join us as we prepare music for our Easter Sunday worship. Children's choir and bell choir will remain at the same time on Sunday afternoons.

Parking Lot Update

The signs of progress are beginning to appear. Our long-awaited parking lot will finally come into being. We are so thankful to God for this tremendous blessing and hope that it serves our congregation well and especially all who come to visit St. Jacob's to hear God's message for salvation. Construction is scheduled to begin on February 19th.

St. Jacob's 250th Year-long Celebration

What a joy it was to kick off our year of celebration. On Sunday, January 18th, we welcomed former St. Jacob's member Pastor Dawn Rister and her family as our initial Anniversary Year guest preacher. We are grateful for her time with us and for the fellowship we shared. The 250th Anniversary Celebration will continue throughout the year as we welcome several guest preachers and share memories of our history within the community of the Dutch Fork. Please make sure to attend each of these special occasions and invite your friends and neighbors to join us. The schedule of the remaining events during this year of celebration is listed below.

- February 15th – Congregational Outreach Event to support NALC Disaster Response.
- March 15th – Guest preacher Rev. Henry Pawluk; congregational dinner following worship.
- April 19th – Decades Day; worshippers dress from past eras and use a historic liturgy from our collective past.
- May 17th – Guest preacher Rev. Marty Ramey; congregational dinner following worship.
- June – Vacation Bible School
- July 19th – Guest preacher Rev. Randy Drafts; congregational dinner following worship.
- August 16th – Guest preacher Rev. David Tholstrup (former SCMD Dean), congregational dinner following worship.
- September 20th – Congregational Outreach Event; blankets for residents at Generations.
- October 25th – Homecoming and Anniversary Sunday, guest preacher NALC Presiding Bishop Dan Selbo; special catered congregational dinner following worship.
- November TBD – Golden Agers Recognition and Celebration.

We give thanks to God for the long history of our congregation, and especially for the life and witness of so many who have been a part of our proclamation and now take their rest in Christ. Thanks be to God for the life we share together.

Ash Wednesday and the Beginning of Lent

This year, Ash Wednesday is February 18th, and we will observe the day with our annual Ash Wednesday services including the imposition of ashes and celebration of Holy Communion beginning at 6:30 PM. The season of Lent is a reflective time for all Christians to take up the discipline or regular worship attendance and confession of sins. Please remember to set aside time for this meaningful and spiritual time together as a church family in Christ.

Lenten Vespers will be held each week during Lent featuring dramatic readings by several of our church family members. Due to the construction of our new parking lot, our Lenten Vespers will be held on Sunday evenings during Lent. Due to the number of activities scheduled for each Sunday, we will not serve a congregational Lenten meal prior to worship.

These changes are necessitated due to planned construction during the week and limited weekday access to our church property during this time. Your understanding is greatly appreciated.

Congo Mission Trip 2026

As you all know, I have had to cancel my previous two mission trips to Congo, first due to health reasons, then last year due to political reasons. In that time, my partner Pastor Stephane Kalonji has journeyed to Congo without assistance from another pastor and carried out the mission work we began twelve years ago. I have truly missed being a part of this important ministry of the Gospel. The good news this year is that we are scheduled to make our annual trip together for the first time in a while. Pastor Kalonji and I are both eager to see the progress made in the construction of the church building we established in 2023. My mission trip to the Congo this summer is scheduled for July 7th – 23rd. On Monday, July 6th, I will fly to Houston, TX to meet Pastor Kalonji; and the next day we will begin the long journey to Africa.

I am thankful to everyone who continues to support this mission work for the sake of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and covet your continued support and prayers. Prior to making this trip I will host one or two fundraising opportunities. Our budget for the trip this summer is $27,000.00. Somehow, by the grace of God, we manage each year to raise enough money to do this important work. Yet it gets more difficult as the years go by. Please consider how you might support the Congo Mission and become a partner with us. Donations may be made through our church offering and designated as “Congo Mission Trip.”

St. Jacob's Lutheran Church,

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! We are incredibly grateful for the community's enthusiastic response to make our 2025 Christmas outreach a success. You made it possible for us to bless more than 575 children again!

Schools, churches, businesses, civic groups, families and friends of We Care once again came together to provide hundreds of gifts and gift cards to children in need. Bikes, fishing poles, clothing, and tons of toys were brought together! We even had gift bags full of goodies for EVERY family along with blankets, knitted hats and gloves, and wrapping paper to distribute to.

We always have clients who missed the Christmas application deadline, as well as always receiving new clients after the distribution, so we had several gift cards and gifts so that no one was turned away empty handed. We want to be sure that every child in need is blessed! So much Christmas joy to go around and all because of your kind generosity!!!

All our families have stories of hardship and loss. We provide for so many who struggle in so many ways. We also have seen so many this year who have been impacted by rising costs due to inflation and mounting financial pressures. Our families have so much difficulty, and we are incredibly thankful to be able to be part of their stories, interjecting provision and care into their lives. Their grateful tears of joy and gently whispered "thank you" are precious to us! Perhaps now more than ever, and especially this year for Christmas, our families feel such relief because of our outreach. May you find joy in knowing that YOU helped to provide that relief through your generosity!

In addition to Christmas, our outreach work continues year-round to meet client needs. Food, utility assistance, resourcing and other support is provided every day. If you have never been to We Care, please contact us to schedule a tour and see what you helped make possible! You are such a blessing and we are stronger together. THANK YOU again!

Sincerely,

Alecia Klauk,
Executive Director
